

WATCH YOUR STEP! TRAPS FOR THE UNWARY IN CONSTRUCTION LITIGATION

MARRIOTT HOTEL, BRISTOL CITY CENTRE

17th June 2005

10.00 am – 1.00 pm

- 9.30am: COFFEE AND REGISTRATION
- 10.00am: CONTRIBUTION AND CAUSATION IN CONSTRUCTION: THE PITFALLS
Antony Edwards-Stuart QC will discuss events intervening between breach and damage, the problem of recovering the costs of a settlement, why a contractor must avoid the global claim and contribution: when the same money is not the same damage.
- 10.40am: ADJUDICATION: THINGS TO WATCH OUT FOR
Kim Franklin will consider the current Latham Review, the lessons to be learned from the London & Amsterdam Properties v Waterman case and the new 100 day Arbitration procedure.
- 11.20am: BREAK
- 11:40am: BUILDERS & CONSTRUCTION PROFESSIONALS: LIABILITY IN TORT FOR ECONOMIC LOSS
Andrew Rigney will explain the implications of recent cases in this difficult area.
- 12.20pm: THE EXPERT WITNESS: COMMON PROBLEMS
Andrew Davis will outline the impact of the CPR on some common problems encountered in connection with expert evidence.
- 13:00pm QUESTIONS TO THE PANEL
- 13.15pm: LUNCH