

Criminal Regulatory Law

A New Era Beckons...

Bristol Marriott City Centre Hotel, 11th October 2007

9.30am – 1pm

09.30 COFFEE AND REGISTRATION

10.00 INTRODUCTION (Michael Spencer QC)

10.10 UPDATES:

Causation and Criminal Regulatory Law: Simon Antrobus examines the criminal test of causation that is becoming increasingly central to regulatory offences both in terms of liability and sentencing, ranging from accidents and risk assessment to environmental pollution

Inquests: James Maxwell-Scott highlights recent developments, including the latest news on the Draft Coroners Bill and the decision of the House of Lords in Hurst

10.50 THE CORPORATE MANSLAUGHTER AND CORPORATE HOMICIDE ACT 2007: Dominic Kay discusses the recently passed Act which creates the new offence of Corporate Manslaughter

11.20 COFFEE

11.40 SENTENCING UPDATE: Presented by Michael Spencer QC

12.00 CONTESTING REGULATORY PROSECUTIONS: Presented by John Cooper

12.25 QUESTIONS TO THE PANEL FOLLOWED BY LUNCH

Accredited for 2.5 hours CPD