Ivor's practice covers commercial, professional liability and insurance disputes, with a particular focus on construction professionals and lawyers. He is heavily involved in cases of impostor fraud and appeared successfully in the recent Court of Appeal case of P&P Property Ltd and Dreamvar (UK) Ltd (and at trial). Ivor's insurance work involves policy wording and coverage issues of notification, non-disclosure, aggregation, minimum terms, disputes between insurers, and Third Parties' rights. He is well known in the professional indemnity sector and is frequently instructed in cases against or co-defending with silks.

Ivor has been shortlisted as Professional Negligence – Junior of the Year at the Chambers UK Bar Awards 2023.

Ivor is a TECBAR-accredited Construction Adjudicator. He was involved in development of the Professional Negligence Adjudication Scheme. Over the last 5 years he has been the most frequently-appointed Adjudicator under the Scheme and he is the lead trainer for its accredited adjudicators.

Ivor was appointed to the part-time judicial role as an Assistant Coroner in 2018 and he sits in two London jurisdictions. In this role he carries out all of the varied judicial tasks of a coroner, including hearing jury and non-jury inquests.

Recent work includes:

- Extensive involvement in multiple identity/imposter fraud claims against professionals (with a one-week Court of Appeal hearing in 2018)
- High Court trial defending a recent loss of a chance solicitors' claim

Inquests & Public Inquiries

Ivor typically acts for operators, employers, contractors, public authorities and their insurers.

Following a 6-week inquest Ivor was appointed in 2018 as an Assistant Coroner in West London and has since been appointed also to South London. When sitting, he acts with all of the powers and duties of a full-time coroner. He sits on jury and non-jury cases.

He is routinely instructed as an advocate in inquests because of the experience that this work brings, both in formulating strategy and management of issues with reputational sensitivities, and for adopting the most appropriate approach to witnesses and to the coroner in hearings. He acts both as sole counsel and
